

Systems Design

Check off #1:

Personal Mission Statement

You will have to write your own personal mission statement. A personal mission statement is your affirmation, philosophy, and purpose rolled into one. It's an opportunity to bring your goals into focus and transfer your ideals into the real world.

It's a chance for you to write your own legacy. It's your personal challenge to yourself.

Here are the ground rules:

- Define yourself.
- Who or what are you dedicated to (family, person, children, etc.)?
- Define your service to others.
- Tell how you will strive to get better, to grow.
- Tell how it's going to be done.

Use your goals and visions to define your mission:

- The examples you seek to set.
- The ideals by which you live or seek to live.
- The affirmations that you can use every day to make you a better person

The process takes time. Write a first draft. Let it sit for a few days. Reread it slowly and make changes that you feel better express your true feelings. Describe the things you think you are the things you seek to accomplish or become. Don't be afraid or embarrassed to flatter yourself. You're writing this for yourself, not others. Affirm everything you think you are or think you want to become. Do it with a sense of pride and a spirit of adventure.

Post it where you can see it every day. Sign it in big, bold felt-tip pen. Live it everyday.

Check off #1(Personal Mission Statement) - Due Date: _____

Check off #2,#3 & #4

The second, third and fourth Check off is your personal Journal.

- Talk about what you did this week outside of school.
- What was your state of mind/mood this week?
- One or more new things learned this week.
- Once a week journal entry.
- May be word processed or written in a notebook.
- Either printed, e-mailed or shown to me

Check off #2, #3 & #4(Personal Journal) - Due Date: _____

Check off #5

The fifth Check off will be a Leadership Evaluation.

Check off #3(Leadership Evaluation) - Due Date: _____

Check off #6, #7, #8, #9 & #10

The remaining Check Offs will be from your assigned team Project.